

Woongjin Thinkbig

Picture Book Collection 2013

Contact for foreign copyrights inquiries

Ms. Joo Jin-hee

Woongjin Thinkbig Co., Ltd,
BR Elitel Bldg 3F, 141-1 Sangsu-dong, Mapo-gu, Seoul, Korea

T +82-(0)31-956-7080

E jinheejoo86@wjtb.net

www.wjthinkbig.com

Printed in March, 2013

Highlights by Korean Illustrators

04

Highlights by Japanese Illustrators

08

Highlights by French Illustrators

14

Woongjin Thinkbig
Picture Book Collection

20

A premium education service with books Woongjin Think Big Woongjin Thinkbig is the mother company of Woongjin Group, founded in 1980.

In Woongjin Thinkbig, over 2,000 employees are trying to fulfill the mission of Woongjin Thinkbig, Right Education, Great Human .
Woongjin Thinkbig's business is based on providing membership tutoring services, selling complete collection of books, and trade books and textbooks.
Also nowadays Woongjin Thinkbig is expanding its reach to the online education services and smart learning, developing digitalized education solution and contents.
Woongjin Thinkbig publishes over 500 books for children and adult in a year and sells/buys more than 100 copyrights overseas, in USA, UK, Japan, and China, etc.

Banana Rocket AR (Augmented Reality)
the virtual world with full of live images from books.

AR is one kind of the virtual reality technologies, to show composed virtual images on the real-world environment.
Using smartphone and tablet PC, you can see the interesting AR contents with full of live images.

AR from picture books

It goes beyond the limitation of the existing picture books.
You will see 3-dimensional images such as the appearances of bone structures in a human body, a beautiful morning glory blooming, and astronauts in the space.
Children can develop their imagination and scientific knowledge with AR contents.

Woongjin Thinkbig Picture books with AR technology

After downloading Banana AR application in Android market or Apple app store, open the pages with AR logo. Run Banana AR application and put the camera of smart phone or tablet PC toward the pages. You will see live 3-dimensional images.

Bones In My Body

Morning Glory
Blooming In The Garden

A Long Journey
To Far Away Sea

An Expedition
To The Rain Forest

How To Meet Dinosaur

Bang!! Volcano Island

An Expedition To The Cave

Let'S Become An Astronaut

I Am A Little Architect

Let's Run, Car!

Highlights by Korean Illustrators

Introduces the works by well-known Korean illustrators, for example Bologna Ragazzi award winning author and the Bologna Illustrator of the Year.

<An Adventure Of Three Water Drop Brothers>

Yun Mi-sook

Bologna Ragazzi Award with her work, <Red Bean Porridge Grandma and the Tiger> in 2004

An Adventure Of Three Water Drop Brothers

This book tells a story of three water drop brothers traveling every corner of the earth. Children will learn the concept of circulation in the nature.

written by Lee Eun-hee illustrated by Yun Mi-sook
32pp

Red Bean Porridge Grandma and the Tiger

Illustrated by Yun Mi-sook
written by Jo Ho-sang Sold to Taiwan, Japan

I love Every Part Of You
Illustrated by Yun Mi-sook
written by Choi Eun-jeong
All rights available

Chang Ho

The Illustrator of the Year in 2009 Bologna book fair with his work <Where is the Moon?>

A Long Journey To Far Away Sea

Every winter, in African southern sea, the migration of flock of sardines occurs. Travel with the sardines flock and see their tough move to survive from many predators in the sea and above sea.

written by Shin Dong-kyung illustrated by Chang Ho
28pp

Mongol Empire, Run Tatar!

illustrated by Chang Ho
written by Kim Nam-joong
All rights available

Mom, There Is A Dinosaur
illustrated by Chang Ho
written by Lee Chun-young
All rights available

Han Byung-ho

Golden Apples Award at Biennial of Illustrations Bratislava in 2005 with his work <I Want To Be A Bird>

Welcome To My Home, Lovebirds

This story is retold version of the episode that was aired in 2011. The couple of lovebirds who couldn't find the right place to make their nest, chose to make one in the balcony of an apartment. This is about how humans and animals can coexist in the same world.

written&illustrated by Han Byung-ho
28pp

The Blue with his friends illustrated and written by Han Byung-ho

All rights available

Oh Seung-min

International NOMA Concours Honor Award in 2004, with his work <Hide and Seek>

Who Lives In A Desert

This picture book introduces animals living in the desert. Children will understand the way how they adapt themselves to survive from the heat and thirsty in the desert.

written by Kim Mi-hye
illustrated by Oh Seung-min
32pp

Mangchi Barks Whenever He Sees Me

illustrated by Oh Seung-min
written by Kong Jin-ha
All rights available

Kim Dong-sung

A Home Of Birds On The Tree

This is about birds who are making a nest on a tree. Children will realize that a nest or a hole on the tree is special place for some birds to take a rest and get sleep.

written by Hwang Bo-yun illustrated by Kim Dong-sung
24pp

Kim Jin-hwa

Guess What?

This book introduces many kinds of various leaves, for example the needle-shaped leaf, broad leaf, and forked leaf, etc. Children will develop the curiosity and interest in tree leaves.

written by Kim Nan-ji illustrated by Kim Jin-hwa
24pp

Highlights by Japanese Illustrators introduces the newest titles by many renowned Japanese illustrators who have worked so long with many publishers in Japan.

They have expressed their own unique viewpoint and understanding of the nature and animals through these works.

<Bang!! Volcano Island>

Akemi Yamafuku

Bang!! Volcano Island

The story is about the volcano island which was made of magma exploded from deep down the ground. Children will understand that not only human but also the earth itself keeps changing like it is alive.

written by Lim Tae-hoon illustrated by Akemi Yamafuku
36pp

Toshitaka Sekiya

An Expedition To The Cave

For children, cave is the place to make them feel spooky and also curious at the same time. Let's make an exciting expedition to the cave in this book, in which drops of water have made rare and strange things for a very long period.

written by Lee Ji-hyun illustrated by Toshitaka Sekiya
28pp

Seizo Tashima

The Story Of Butterfly In The Woods

This is the first work of the author's trilogy about the woods. This book tells about the relation between butterflies and other animals in the woods and also how even animal help each other in the wild nature.

written&illustrated by Seizo Tashima
32pp

The Secret Of An Oldman In The Woods

On this last book of the author's trilogy, it tries to explain what it is to build a right relation between humans and animals. An oldman who a boy ran into in the woods, tells a story about the amazing woods and how he gets sad and angry when human destroys the nature and animals.

written&illustrated by Seizo Tashima
32pp

Why Do We Bleed When We Fall Down?

illustrated by Seizo Tashima written by Seo Bo-hyun Sold to China and Japan

It Is Raining

illustrated by Seizo Tashima
written by Lee Mi-ae
Sold to Japan

Squirrel Loves Woods

On this second work of Seizo Tashima, it is a squirrel who tells the story. He shows how much he is proud of the woods, where he eats, rests and sleeps.

written&illustrated by Seizo Tashima
32pp

Yasunari Murakami

We All Grow Up

It shows what growing up really means and how it makes physical differences. You will see a little dog, a little chick, a tadpole and lots of other animals turn into grown ups.

— written by Lee Sang-kyo illustrated by Yasunari Murakami
24pp

Sizuko Wakayama

Who Comes To A Strawberry Field?

This book explains an organic relation between animals. It tells in order to get delicious strawberry, we need many kinds of insects like earthworm and ladybirds doing their roles in nature.

— written by Kim Mi-hye
illustrated by Sizuko Wakayama
24pp

Hiroshi Abe

Hungry Polar Bear

The author went to the North pole to see a polar bear and a seal and drew this book based on his experience. A big polar bear struggling to hunt a seal shows the animals' severe lives to survive.

— written&illustrated by Hiroshi Abe 32pp
Sold to Japan

Accototo

Find Me If You Can

This book shows how animals hide themselves to survive from their predators in the wild nature. You will see interesting examples such as how frogs change their skin colors to hide and a little deer and tiger have similar patterns on skins to surroundings.

— written&illustrated by Accototo
24pp

Highlights by French Illustrators

Introduce the works with mind-blowing and colorful illustrations in vivid colors. They have excellent senses of showing the lives of animals and plants, which you can't see in other picture books.

<An Expedition To The Rain Forest>

Marie Caudry

An Expedition To The Rain Forest

In the rain forest, plants grow up faster and species are various. Let's follow the sloth guide, and see what kinds of animals and plants are living by the Amazon river.

written by Shin Dong-kyung illustrated by Marie Caudry
32pp

Isabelle Carrier

Where Are You Going? Mr. Clouds?

This book shows lots of clouds with interesting shapes and how clouds are related to the weather for instance, raining and snowing.

written & illustrated by Isabelle Carrier
24pp

1,2,3 Splash

illustrated and written by
Isabelle Carrier
Sold to Italy and France
•Co-edition

Higher Than Clouds

illustrated and written by
Isabelle Carrier
Sold to Italy and France
•Co-edition

Grey Is Pretty

illustrated and written by
Isabelle Carrier
Sold to France
•Co-edition

Hear It, Spring Is Here!

In spring the singing of a swallow, in summer the sounds from the festivals, in autumn the sounds of falling leaves and finally in winter the sounds of the snow. Children will learn about the various different sounds which each season makes.

written&illustrated by Isabelle Carrier
24pp

Juliette Le Roux

Animals With Sharp Things

The sharp parts of animals are very important to protect themselves and fight against enemies. The book shows the sharp thorn of a hedgehog and horns of rhino and other interesting cases of animals to teach how animals use them in their lives.

written by Kim Sun-han illustrated by Juliette Le Roux 24pp

When Night Comes,

At night, nothing seems clear but when you get used to the dark, you will see a bat and an owl trying to hunt a prey and also a sundrops blooming. The books introduces things coming into life at night.

written&illustrated by Isabelle Carrier
24pp

Emile Vast

What An Awesome Tree!

Even though a tree seem to be still everyday, but even a tree changes itself to survive in the wild nature. While comparing a tree to a squirrel, the book shows how amazing vitality a tree has.

written by Shin Sun-jae illustrated by Emile Vast 24pp

Aude Leonard

One Second

As time passes, a second becomes a minute, a day, a week, a month, and a year. Children will learn about the simple concept of the time and also how a certain time can be different between animals.

written by Na Hee-deok illustrated by Aude Leonard 32pp

May Angeli

Morning Glory Blooming In The Garden

The author wanted to express the vitality of morning glory which she had in her garden. The book is about the growth stages of morning glory to let children know that even plant moves and grows up.

written&illustrated by May Angeli
24pp

Martine Bourre, Elgar

Zzz, We Are Sleeping

Not only humans but also animals have to sleep. The book tells where and how animals take sleep, and how important taking sleep is.

written by Lee Mi-ae
illustrated by Martine Bourre, Elgar
24pp

Brown Bear Eats A Lot

The story is about a year of a brown bear searching for food everyday from spring to winter. Children will learn how it is important to eat everyday to survive, reading about the brown bear who eats a lot.

written&illustrated by Martine Bourre
24pp

Who Is Better?

illustrated by Martin Bourre
written by Lee Sang-kyo
All rights available

What To Play With?

illustrated by Martin Bourre
written by Cho Eun-soo
All rights available

What To Make?

illustrated by Martin Bourre
written by Shin Jeong-min
All rights available

Woongjin Thinkbig Picture Book Collection

Introduces picture books by Korean authors with creative expressions and beautiful illustrations. They expand the world of picture books ranging from the greatness of and lives to scientific principles of heat and energy.

<Hello, It's Me?>

Let's Ride A Bicycle

Animals with different sizes and weights ride a bicycle together, going up and down the smooth paths and bumpy roads. Children will learn the basic principle of the power which makes things move.

written by Lee Chun-young illustrated by Lee Jin-a 24pp

What Is This Made Of?

The substance is the basic of an object. The uses and shapes depend on the substances of the objects. In this book, it tells how it has different qualities between glass, metal, tree, rock, plastic and cloth.

written by Kim Yun-kyung designed by Mano a mano
32pp

Hello, It's Me?

Just like children love playing with a mirror, in this adorable picture book, little dolls reflect themselves in every objects. Children will love to see these interesting images, which encourages their imaginative power.

written by Kim Kyung-hoo
designed by Mano a mano
24pp

Let's Play With Rubber Band

This book shows the special qualities of rubber band while playing with it. Children will understand the qualities of rubber and many ways to play with rubbers.

written by Kim Jeong-hee illustrated by Kin Jin-hwa
24pp

Many Kinds Of Vehicle

In the land of fairy, the flooding came and trashed everywhere. However various kinds of cars are eager to help re-build the land. Children will learn many types of cars which they are and what function they can do.

written by Lee Chun-young illustrated by Park Su-ji 24pp

Yummy, Yummy

Do other animals eat three times a day? No! Different animals eat different things at different times. This book shows how it is different between animals to eat, and what kinds of different things they eat.

written by Kim Su-ju illustrated by Lee Jong-kyun
24pp

I Am A Gentle Cat

This book observes a cat's behaviors and habits. A cat seems to be sleepy all day long but the book tells cats are excellent hunters with quick move and sharp claws. Not only about cat but children will also learn the attitude toward pets.

written by Kim Tae-hee illustrated by Kim Jeong-eun
24pp

Animals Can Talk Too

This book is about how even animal can communicate. You will be surprised to know the ways of animals' communication, which animals have developed for a very long period.

written by Hwang Bo-yun
illustrated by Kwon Mun-hee
24pp

Follow What I Am Doing

The appearance of animals are very various. Follow the unique and fun movements of different animals and develop curiosity about animals.

written by Park Yu-kyung illustrated by Choi Mi-ran 24pp

Penguin Is My Friend

A boy wants to have a penguin as his pet, so he asks a lot of questions to his mom. Through mom's answers, he boy realize what he should do to live with a penguin on the earth together.

written&illustrated by Cho Eun-su
24pp

My Poo Is The Best!

Animals' poo tell lots of things about animals, for instance the species or food, size of animals and etc. The book shows how animals use their poo in interesting ways.

written by Park Yu-kyung illustrated by Jung Mun-ju 24pp

The Best Home In The World

Let's follow a father and a daughter trying to find the best house in the world. In their searching, they show us lots of different houses where different animals are living in.

written by Cho Eun-su
illustrated by Kwon Mun-hee
28pp

How To Meet Dinosaur

This book is for children who love dinosaurs and are curious about them. It shows the steps of the excavation of dinosaurs' bones and what to discover during the excavation.

written by Lim Jong-deok illustrated by Han Ho-jin
28pp

Dinosaur Rescue Team

This book brings many kinds of dinosaurs to a city! Children will love to see how dinosaurs help fighting fire in a high building using their own characteristics.

written by Kim Hee-nam illustrated by Lee Kwang-ik
32pp

There Comes A Hunter!

This book is about extinct animals and plants in the Cambrian period, and their relation to the present animals and plants.

written by Ne Eun-hee illustrated by Kang Woo-geun
32pp

I Am A Little Architect

The structure of a building seems very complicated but it simply consists of pillars, plates, arches and domes. This book shows the structure of a building in simple way while folding and cutting papers to teach the basics of the structure.

— written by Ji Jeong-woo
designed by Mano a mano
28pp

Is It Same? Or Different?

This book shows how our eyes can be easily mistaken and how our brains recognize what we see through eyes. It encourages children to have a question always to what we see.

— written by Kim Seong-eun illustrated by Kim Seong-hee
28pp

Let's Run, Car!

This book is about the stages of car developments as the scientific technologies have evolved. It shows various cars in the history and also explains the technologies which made an important effect to car history.

— written by Kim Seong-eun
illustrated by Kim Seong-hee
28pp

Fly, Paper Airplane

This book flies a paper airplane and shows the principle of how paper airplane works. While children read various ways of making better paper airplanes flying higher and longer, it encourages children to have scientific curiosity to everything.

— written by Jeong Chang-hoon illustrated by Lee Hye-ryun
28pp

A Monster Likes Heat

A boy finds a frozen monster outside the house. He brings the monster into home, and have him seated by the a stove to warm up and dry his hair with hair dryer. Children will learn that there is the heat in our every day life and what the heat does to our life.

— written by Kim Seong-eun
illustrated by Oh Jeong-taek
32pp

Power In Everything, Everywhere

There are many kinds of powers on the earth, for example, friction and gravity. Children will learn about interesting powers working on the earth which stop a rolling ball and fall down an apple on a tree.

— written by Kim Kyung-hoo
illustrated by Kang Hye-sook
18pp

Let's Go Into Magical Woods With Light

The lights can make interesting images as they have special qualities like going straight, reflecting, and having multiple colors. The book itself is a stage and a tool as well to show how the lights work.

— written by Kim Kyung-hoo
illustrated by Kang Hye-sook
18pp

Bones In My Body

How do bones look like?
 Why do we have bones?
 What happens if we don't have bones?
 This book tells us where the bones are in our bodies and what they do.

—
 written by Kim Hyung-jun illustrated by Won Hye-jin
 28pp

Let's See How Our Bodies Work

This book is about how our bodies work without our awareness, for example, getting sweat, gooseflesh, and fart. Children will learn that our bodies are working constantly to live and to protect ourselves.

—
 written by Lee Ji-yun illustrated by Lee Kyung-seok
 28pp

I Am Grown Up

This book shows how a snake, a dragonfly and a hart go through dramatic changes as they grow up. Children will learn the meaning and the process of growing up as they see many animals turning into grown up.

—
 written by Park Chan-young illustrated by Kim Go-eun
 32pp

Flowers And Butterflies In The Nature

This books is about how flowers compete each other for pollination and propagation. Children will learn about the relation between flowers and insects and also the inside structure of flowers.

—
 written by Kim Hyung-jun
 illustrated by Won Hye-jin
 28pp

How To Play With Wild Flowers And Trees

You will love to play with everything from the nature. This book shows how to play with flower and trees which you see everyday nearby home.

—
 written by Na Eun-hee illustrated by Cho Mi-ja
 24pp

Amazing Mushroom

You can see many kinds of mushrooms in the woods in autumn. Children will realize the amazing strategy of mushrooms to survive and how they choose their place by the way of spreading a spore in order to grow and reproduce safely.

—
 written by Seok Sun-ja illustrated by Yu Jin-hee
 28pp

When We Go To The Foreshore

This book follows the footprints or holes left on the foreshore to show children the species living in the foreshore. While they observe the animals, they will realize the powerful energy of lives.

— written by Park Eun-ho illustrated by Yun Bong-sun
24pp

Where The Butterflies Went To?

This book introduces various kinds of insects which are too small to find at first glance. Children will learn the characteristics of insects, for example who they are and where they live.

— written by Shin Sun-jae
illustrated by Kim Si-young 24pp

I Like Being Underground

Who would like to live underground where is with high humidity and no light? But to surprise, many kinds of animals live underground to avoid cold or hot weather, to hide from predator, or even just like to be underground. See what kinds of animals are living underground.

— written by Cho Jin-ryung illustrated by Kim Young-soo 24pp

When Wind Blows

This books shows what happens when wind blows. From shaking clothes hanging on a washing line, to making giant wave overwhelming a town, it shows the power of the wind.

— written by Na Hee-deok
illustrated by Soboki
24pp

Finding The Water

This story shows the advantages of living in a herd while telling the story of a little elephant on journey to find water in dry season. Children will see many kinds of animals living in a prairie.

— written by Lee Mi-ae
illustrated by Choi Min-oh
28pp

Let's Become An Astronaut

This story shows the lives and activities in the spaceship through the space trip from the earth to the space station. It shows what astronauts eat, drink, wear, do, wash and sleep in the space.

— written by Jeong Chang-hoon
illustrated by Noh In-kyung
32pp

The Travel Of Sands

This books is about how little sands are made from a big and solid rocks. Children will learn that the earth we are living in is consisted of many kinds rocks and how big rocks are turning into small sands.

— written by Kim Eun-ha illustrated by Lee Jong-mi 24pp

