

SPOTTY AND BLACKY

by Jung-soon Ko

PRICE USD 10.63

PUBLICATION DATE 16 May 2017

FORMAT Hardback

EXTENT 40 pages

CATEGORY Children's Books/
Picture Books

SIZE 222*275*10mm

RIGHTS WORLD

Korean Michael Morpurgo Jungsoon Ko tells a poignant story about abandoned animals with adorable illustration!

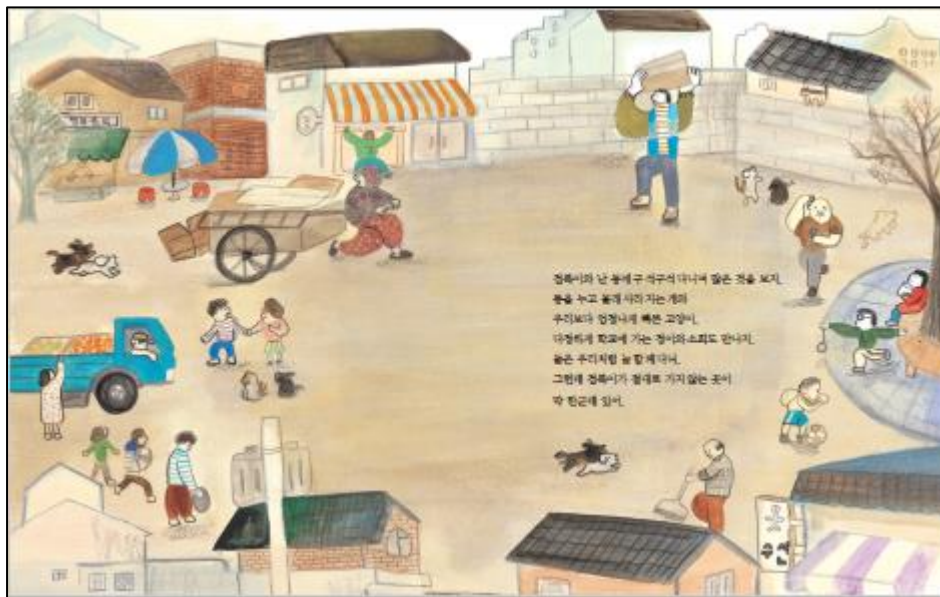

Perfect book for education which helps children learn how to love stray animals and co-live happily with them!

Woof-woof! Have you seen stray dogs wandering around us? Here, let me introduce Spotty and Blacky the dog living in our town, but not in a certain house! Spotty has a big yellow spot in its face while Blacky has literally black fluffy fur.

Homeless, but not hopeless because they belong together!

This lovely pair goes everywhere together. They eat together, enjoy a stroll with each other, and even go to sleep placed skin-to-skin. Patient Spotty always waits for his beloved friend Blacky whose one leg is shorter than the other.

This busy buzzy duo go every streets around the town except for crosswalk near the three-way intersection because Spotty had extremely bad memory on the place. What on earth had happened to poor Spotty?

Author Information

Warm pet lover author Jungsoon Ko have rendered many picture books for children whose protagonists are animals. Ko shows her magnificent affection to living creatures via her work including <A CAT IN THE SUPERMARKET> (Rights sold to China) and <THE MOST INCREDIBLE DAY>. She now lives with her two patient and friendly cats like Spotty and Blacky in the story. Ko has a hope for world becoming a place where people and animals mingles together peacefully.