

The Last Summer

Written & Illustrated
by Ji-hyeon Kim

PRICE USD 11.45

PUBLICATION DATE 19 SEPTEMBER 2017

FORMAT Hardback

EXTENT 24 pages

CATEGORY Board Book

SIZE 217*304*12mm

RIGHTS WORLD

Filled with charm and lyrical illustration, a best wordless picture book!

Sometimes people pass by many precious moments which could be kept as beautiful memories.

We need time to look around ordinary life, that reminds us value of happiness.

The Illustrator, Kim Ji-hyeon, tries to share those amazing feelings with readers without text.

A little boy, who is on vacation with family, goes for trip to a secluded village. The boy and his dog stroll along country road in deep forest. There's no one, he feels that warm sunshine and cool breeze.

Everything is amazing, seeing fantastic milky way, jumping into cold water with a splash, making eye contact with small striped fish. Mother nature approaches quietly and makes him feel all senses to realize beauty in life.

Touching our mind with exquisite and oriental-style illustrations.

This special picture book, including any explanation about the boy's feelings.

But still it is enough to feel his impression of nature.

Because readers can remind of who we really are without text ironically, from simple images to meaning of life.

A book for all ages. This story makes readers concentrate on images and feelings that we can easily forget in busy daily life.

Author Information

Kim Ji-hyeon has done an exhibition as illustrator, FOR-REST; THE FOREST OF SEVEN IIIUSTRATOR. Kim studied design in Korea and United Kingdom. Through her works, Kim shows her affection for mother nature and human.